

HealthFirst & Primary Care Access Authority Announce Public Hearing Schedule

September 10, 2008

The Connecticut HealthFirst Authority, created by the Legislature to make recommendations on healthcare and insurance reform, is holding a series of public hearings around the state to take testimony from residents on the barriers to care and possible solutions that ensure access and affordability. Do not miss this opportunity to have your voice heard and to help shape Connecticut’s healthcare and healthcare-financing future. Please try to attend.

Sincerely,

Kevin P. Lembo, MPA
 State Healthcare Advocate
 Connecticut
