

Today, it's important to vote with your heart and your head. Bailouts and tax increases have crippled the economy and cost us jobs.

Small business is our backbone. Let's help them. National security must remain strong. Put your trust in the candidate who is and will be an advocate for veterans.

These issues will have a lasting effect on our children.

In the Republican primary on August tenth, you do have a choice.

I'm Rob Simmons, I'm still on the ballot, and I approved this message.
